

Hamilton County, Ohio
OKI-RCC Tour
Thursday, August 27, 2015

Cost: $20.00

8:30am – Registration coffee and pastries

9:00am – Leave from Office – 22 Triangle Park Dr. 45246

9:30am – Arrive at Homeadow Song Farm - 5038 Gray Road Cincinnati, OH 45232
Owner, Peter Huttinger will lead a tour of his urban production and education farm in historic Wooden Shoe Hollow. His charming, compact farm includes fruit trees, vegetables, chickens and goats.

10:30am – Board Bus and travel to Finley Market

10:45am – Arrive at Findley Market – Tour the market and composting operation

11:40am – Board the Bus to tour revitalized downtown Cincinnati and go to Lunch

Noon – Arrive at Moerlein House or Incline House (TBD) for Lunch

1:00pm –Board the Bus

1:15 pm - Arrive at Vista View Subdivision in Miami Twp. to view a problem landslide site and the ongoing remediation

1:45pm – Leave for Chevron Oil site

2:00pm – Arrive at Chevron Oil Refinery (formally Gulf Oil Refinery) – View several water quality and groundwater remediation practices.

3:00pm –Load bus and head back to office – View a video of Turpin Farm’s new Prairie Turf Project and our Teacher of the Year, Julie Christner, from Hilltop Elementary in Wyoming. Julie was also selected as the 2015 Ohio Conservation Teacher of the Year for her trench drain project that involved every single student in her school!

3:30pm – Arrive back at our office